LITTLE HEROES PLAYGROUND PLANS UNVEILED

Preliminary plans for the Little Heroes accessible playground project have been announced by the community committee and were displayed at Frog Fest and the October City Council meeting. Park Board Chairman Jesse DeGraffenreed stands by the plans at the Roubidoux Park. Little Heroes Playground will have a military theme with all five branches being highlighted on prominent features within the playground. W. H. Croaker will welcome the kids to the playground. Fundraising has begun for this project and will continue through 2015. Plans are to construct it in 2016. www.unlimitedplay.com

Tee shirts are available at City Hall to help with fundraising and to advertise the project. Pictured with Mayor Hardman is Logan and his grandmother, Karol, as he receives the first of the tee shirts.

Unlimited Play is leading the fundraising and design for this project. Please get involved and help make this playground a grand project. Ask for details at City Hall.

PULASKI YOUNG MARINES OFFER LEADERSHIP

The Pulaski Young Marines is a non-profit youth organization sponsored by the Marine Corps League and is based on the principles of discipline, leadership and teamwork. The mission is to educate and inspire youth within our community by promoting a healthy, drug-free lifestyle. Our Young Marines learn responsibility, accountability, citizenship, history, respect for others, courage and the benefits of living healthy and physically fit.

Our members range from 8-18 and come from all walks of life. The Young Marines is not a recruiting tool for the U. S. Marine Corps, nor is it a fix-all for children with behavior problems.

Pulaski Young Marines was established in August of 2005 and continues to grow and learn. Our volunteer staff is a dedicated group of retired Marines, soldiers and members of the community. We are proud of our volunteers and proud to be part of the community. You can contact the Young Marines at fourtop@embarqmail.com for further information. SEMPER FIDELIS!

CITIZENS' KUDOS

"A shout out to your utility office. They noticed a spike in our water usage and called us. We had a leak. Good to know your folks are alerting people."

Dennis Hutchinson

WPD VIPS PROGRAM

The Police Department is accepting applications for the VIPS (Volunteers in Police Service) Program. VIPS assist the police at special events, as well as other assigned duties. They receive training from the WPD. You may contact vips@waynesvillepd.org for questions and interest in this program.

AROUND TOWN

Oktoberfest hosted a huge crowd in beautiful weather. The crowd listened to music from the 399th Army band.

Fall comes to Waynesville.

LOWE'S HEROES

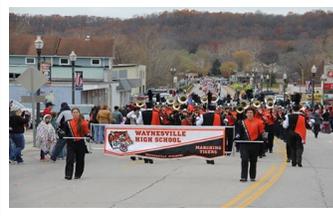

Our local Lowe's Home Improvement Heroes' program worked to beautify the Trail of Tears site, the new National Park Sign at the Roubidoux Bridge and the Summit and Tiger Neighborhood Parks. They planted boxwoods and roses for next spring's opening of this encampment site.

Our thanks to them for this work and improving our community.

VETERANS' PARADE

The annual Veterans' Day Parade, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was held in Waynesville this year on November 11. A ceremony was held at the Middle School area. The Veteran of the Year, Walter Dixon, led the parade. Thanks to our veterans for their service. (Chamber photos.)
